

TV Preview

Question 40: Who might send letters of complaint to the TV station?

- a) real estate agents
- b) Star Wars fans
- c) used car dealers
- d) costume designers

Question 41: When the reviewer uses the term 'by today's standards' to describe costumes, he is implying that

- a) expectations are greater now than they used to be.
- b) anything modern is better than anything produced earlier.
- c) costume designing is now a professional occupation.
- d) no one could have taken the earlier costumes seriously.

Question 42: The stars at the end of the review are

- a) the reviewer's opinion of the quality of the program.
- b) an official rating of the program.
- c) a warning that the program may offend some viewers.
- d) an indication of the audience rating of the program.

Question 43: Viewers will enjoy the program more if they

- a) know the difference between a light sabre and an atomic particle neutraliser gun.
- b) have had dealings with real estate agents or used car dealers.
- c) send their complaints to the TV station.
- d) have some knowledge of the original Star Wars film.

Question 44: The reviewer feels that the sitcom that follows Centura Family Patterson is

- a) offensive and unpleasant.
- b) void of anything annoying or upsetting.
- c) more interesting than the Centura Family Patterson.
- d) enjoyable entertainment.