

Underground City

Question 32: PATH is a system of

- a) underground maps and directions.
- b) linked underground retail malls.
- c) transport facilities.
- d) protection from winter temperatures.

Question 33: The blue letter T in PATH stands for

- a) north.
- b) J trains.
- c) Toronto.
- d) office tower.

Question 34: Underground, PATH signs are

- a) prominently displayed.
- b) included in offices in towers.
- c) positioned by retailers.
- d) located on the ceiling.

Question 35: Who is responsible for the PATH signs?

- a) a pedestrian committee
- b) transport operators
- c) Toronto City Council
- d) owners of shopping outlets

Question 36: What would be an important reason for developing the PATH project?

- a) to facilitate business in the city of Toronto
- b) to provide ample parking spaces for car owners
- c) to bring tourists quickly to the city centre
- d) to create the world's longest concourse

Question 37: Which statement is correct?

- a) The PATH system has been completed.
- b) The PATH system is not convenient for car owners.
- c) The PATH system is in the process of being extended.
- d) The PATH system is closed during winter months.

Question 38: When was a system of standardised PATH signs introduced?

- a) 1900
- b) 1960
- c) 1970
- d) 1987