

Modern Food Production

Question 1: What is one benefit the writer ascribes to factory farms?

- a) space saving
- b) enriched farm soils
- c) natural waste disposal
- d) cheaper meat

Question 2: One method of disposing of animal waste from factory farms is to

- a) spray it onto pastures.
- b) store it underground.
- c) convert it into gases.
- d) sell it to fertiliser companies

Question 3: The writer claims a major problem caused by factory farms for all people is the

- a) development of drug-resistant bacteria.
- b) high levels of animal waste.
- c) widespread use of antibiotics.
- d) smell.

Question 4: What connotation does the word /Jagoon suggest in the article?

- a) shallow lake
- b) dammed stream
- c) groundwater
- d) sewage pond

Question 5: One of the writer's main concerns about factory farm animals is the

- a) smell on factory farms.
- b) cruel overcrowding in pens.
- c) way Europeans treat their stock.
- d) amount of water wasted in cleaning.

Question 6: Which words best describe the writer's reaction to factory farms?

- a) supportive but with reservations
- b) critical but optimistic
- c) judgemental and one-sided
- d) enlightening and practical