

The Town that almost Died

Question 1: Chemainus embarked on an outdoor mural scheme because it

- a) had buildings that needed painting.
- b) wished to preserve its history.
- c) would create economic development.
- d) had many large spaces for murals.

Question 2: Which statement is true?

- a) Chemainus has a typical history of milling.
- b) Chemainus is situated on a major highway.
- c) Chemainus was the first town to have outdoor murals.
- d) Chemainus has become a ghost town.

Question 3: Who were the people who worked in 'bull gangs'?

- a) First Nation people
- b) Chinese
- c) Scots
- d) Germans

Question 4: The Chemainus mural project is a positive story of community

- a) desperation.
- b) defiance.
- c) resolve.
- d) flexibility.

Question 5: The Chemainus mural project was unique because

- a) of its location.
- b) the mayor suggested the project.
- c) it was the first community effort of its type.
- d) it portrayed the full history of the town.

Question 6: For much of its history, Chemainus has depended upon

- a) tourism.
- b) slavery.
- c) community projects.
- d) manual labour.