

Der Meistertrunk

Question 7: A Meistertrunk is a

- a) medieval costume.
- b) local German wine.
- c) friendly contest.
- d) coffee

Question 8: The mayor of Rothenburg offered the glass of wine to the count

- a) as an expression of friendliness.
- b) to confuse the enemy forces.
- c) to get a reprieve for the town.
- d) to demonstrate the quality of the local wine.

Question 9: When making the challenge, it is most likely the count didn't

- a) expect anyone to accept his challenge.
- b) intend to have a second run in September.
- c) believe the feat was possible.
- d) know there was enough wine to fill the tankard.

Question 10: Der Meistertrunk is a re-enactment of

- a) the siege of Rothenburg.
- b) the drinking contest.
- c) a torch-lit procession.
- d) a medieval battle.

Question 11: That the depicting of the event has become a 'tourist curiosity' suggests that tourists

- a) find it is an interesting and unusual event.
- b) are eager to find out more about the event.
- c) take an unusual and unnecessary interest in the picture.
- d) are not impressed by the picture.