

Question 1: The writer believes that

- a) recognising palindromes can be fun.
- b) cooking is more fun than reading.
- c) most people enjoy sport.
- d) everyone enjoys crosswords.

Question 2: Which one of these place names is not a palindrome?

- a) Glenelg
- b) Parap
- c) Arrawarra
- d) Woy Woy

Question 3: Which statement is true?

- a) Palindromes can only have an odd number of letters.
- b) People's names can be palindromes.
- c) Palindromes are important in crosswords.
- d) Only short words can be palindromes.

Question 4: How many words are palindromes in this sentence?

- a) two
- b) three
- c) four
- d) five

Question 5: Which letters must be added to make it a real word and palindrome?

- a) LEV
- b) VEL

- c) EL
- d) LE

Question 6: Which of these phrases can make a palindrome?

- a) Summit
- b) Glen in Glenelg
- c) red pot top
- d) borrow or rob

Question 7: What is the similarity between palindromes and crosswords?

- a) They provide enjoyment with words.
- b) They use more than three letters.
- c) They improve a person's spelling.
- d) They are hard to complete.