

Year 5 Class 7 questions

Q1

$$16 \div 3 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q2

$$19 \div 2 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q3

Annie's school has just bought 140 text books. If the books come in packages of two, how many packages did the school buy?

Q4

$$11 \div 4 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q5

$$12 \div 5 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q6

$$20 \div 3 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q7

$$26 \div 3 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q8

7 trucks take 364 sheep to the market. If each truck takes the same number of sheep, how many are in each truck?

Q9

6 trucks take 288 sheep to the market. If each truck takes the same number of sheep, how many are in each truck?

Q10

$$16 \div 6 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q11

$$26 \div 3 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q12

$$29 \div 3 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q13

$$61 \div 7 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q14

$$75 \div 8 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q15

$$85 \div 8 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q16

Maxwell had 31 cards. If he shared them equally between himself and four friends, how many were left over?

Q17

Mr Jones had 147 stickers and shared them equally between six students. How many were left over?

Q18

Xavier packs 317 gems into boxes. If 5 gems are packed into each box, how many are left over?

Q19

$$26 \div 4 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q20

$$27 \div 4 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q21

$$26 \div 6 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q22

$$27 \div 6 = \square \text{ r } \square$$

Q23

$$67 \div 12 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q24

$$127 \div 12 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q25

$$143 \div 12 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q26

$$41 \div 12 = \square \frac{\square}{\square}$$

Q27

Luna had 131 lollies to be divided equally into 8 party bags and gave any lollies left over to Chase. How many did Chase get?

Q28

Elizabeth had a box of 58 stickers. If she shared them equally between herself and five friends, how many were left over?

Q29

Jasmine had a box of 85 stickers. If she shared them equally between herself and seven friends, how many were left over?

Q30

Lara had a box of 52 gems. If she shared them equally between herself and six friends, how many were left over?