

Cheese Rolling

Question 13: A traditional event is one that

- a) is held each year in May.
- b) has continued for a long time.
- c) has become an international event.
- d) has the support of the whole community.

Question 14: At the bottom of the hill it is not uncommon for some competitors to

- a) stumble as they catch up with the cheese.
- b) run into posts and be concussed.
- c) incur sprains and sustain broken bones.
- d) trip over the tumbling cheese.

Question 15: The activity at Coopers Hill could best be described as

- a) foolhardy and thrilling.
- b) professional and thrilling.
- c) awesome and hysterical.
- d) inspiring and frenzied.

Question 16: What do the signs warn people to do?

- a) watch out for rolling cheese
- b) avoid running into posts
- c) keep the area clear for ambulances
- d) keep off the hill

Question 17: The hill is particularly dangerous because it is

- a) concave and grassy.
- b) fenced and grassy.
- c) steep and slippery.
- d) eroded and fenced.

Question 18: It is most likely the spectators attend the races because the races are

- a) extravagant and dangerous.
- b) unpredictable and horrific.
- c) breathtaking and hilarious.
- d) shocking and nerve-racking.