

Eye drops

Question 34: The instructions on the eye-drop container should be

- a) used as a guide.
- b) read before using the treatment.
- c) treated with caution.
- d) disregarded if they are difficult to follow.

Question 35: People who have difficulty adding drops to their eyes should

- a) get assistance from someone reliable.
- b) use tissues to dab the eyes.
- c) get a doctor to apply the drops.
- d) stop taking the treatment.

Question 36: The instructions stress that the dropper should be

- a) washed after use.
- b) wiped with a soft tissue.
- c) kept hygienically clean.
- d) only rested on a clean surface.

Question 37: After the container is opened, eye-drop solution should not be

- a) kept in the fridge.
- b) used for more than four weeks.
- c) used if it causes blurred vision.
- d) left with the dropper in the bottle.

Question 38: The diagram showing drops being applied to the eye

- a) adds glamour to the instructions.
- b) is essential for people who don't read instructions.
- c) absolves the supplier of any accidental misuse.
- d) makes point 6 easier to understand.

Question 39: Before using eye drops it is important for users to wash

- a) the eye-dropper nozzle.
- b) their eyelids and around their eyes.
- c) their hands for half a minute.
- d) the eye-drop bottle applicator.

Question 40: The instructions printed here would most likely be found

- a) in a pharmacy.
- b) in a hospital.
- c) at a construction site.
- d) at a pre-school.