

How to learn

Question 41: According to the text, learning a poem by heart may be useful for public recitals as well as for

- a) school examinations.
- b) personal enjoyment.
- c) improving poetry appreciation.
- d) participating in bush poetry competitions.

Question 42: Once you have mastered learning the whole poem you should

- a) perform in front of an audience.
- b) recite the poem for a friend.
- c) put the poem aside for a day.
- d) discard the printed copy of the poem.

Question 43: Reading the poem aloud gives the learner a chance to

- a) appreciate the rhythm of the poem.
- b) determine how long it will take to recite the poem.
- c) understand what the poet is trying to communicate.
- d) indicate if the poem is suitable for a public performance.

Question 44: The printed poem can be dispensed with

- a) once sections to learn have been marked off.
- b) following a satisfactory recital in front of a prompt.
- c) when the page is no longer readable.
- d) after the first successful public performance.

Question 45: What would be the most important step in learning a poem to recite?

- a) printing a copy for a friend
- b) reciting the poem in front of a prompt
- c) marking off sections of the poem to be memorised
- d) selecting a suitable poem