

Types and names of cyclones

Question 16: Modern tropical cyclones

- a) are named after girlfriends.
- b) are given politicians' names.
- c) have the names of flowers.
- d) are given both male and female names.

Question 17: If Australian cyclones Joe, Trudy, Betty and Mark all formed in the same season, which one was last to form?

- a) Joe
- b) Trudy
- c) Betty
- d) Mark

Question 18: In which ocean do typhoons occur?

- a) North Pacific Ocean
- b) North Atlantic Ocean
- c) North Indian Ocean
- d) South Pacific Ocean

Question 19: Cyclones, hurricanes and typhoons have names to

- a) show which ocean they are occurring in and the places to be most affected.
- b) indicate the wind speeds and amount of damage that can be expected.
- c) prevent confusion for people in a storm's path when several cyclones form in the same region.
- d) either pay tribute to or discredit the people named.

Question 20: If a cyclone was called Kirogi (meaning "wild goose"), it would have occurred in

- a) Florida.
- b) Asia.
- c) Fiji.
- d) Australia.