

What

Question 28: The person being asked “What are you going to be?” is most likely

- a) near the end of primary school.
- b) in the last years of high school.
- c) at university or college.
- d) a member of a young rock band.

Question 29: The narrator plays an “air guitar’ because he

- a) doesn't own a guitar.
- b) has a very lightweight guitar.
- c) is impersonating the styles of rock band guitarists.
- d) plays the guitar with wild, vigorous swings.

Question 30: “High achievers” refers to people who

- a) are very concerned about achieving the best result.
- b) are always ready to take on new challenges.
- c) have positions of great importance.
- d) have completed a university course.

Question 31: Because the narrator watches TV, it suggests that the person

- a) is lazy and has no ambition.
- b) is very self-centred and acts with an air of superiority.
- c) has meaningless priorities compared to other family members.
- d) is self-indulgent and has no thoughts for the future.

Question 32: It is most likely the narrator's parents

- a) have given up hope for the narrator.
- b) disapprove of the narrator's interest in music.
- c) don't have much time for the narrator.
- d) are concerned that the narrator won't be like them.

Question 33: The narrator's reaction to the concern of others about his future could be described as

- a) indifference and banality.
- b) bemusement and frustration.
- c) pity and disquiet.
- d) sorrow and cynicism.