

What are you going to be?

My mother and father and even my brother
Are constantly asking me,
“When you leave school in a year or two,
What are you going to be?”

Mum is a writer and Dad is a chef,
Jake’s doing a Law degree.
I don’t think I want to do any of that.
I really just want to be me.

I come from a family of “high-achievers”
They’re constantly on the go.
They never have time to watch TV
Or turn on the radio.

I love to watch all the music shows
And play on my air guitar.
Perhaps I’ll surprise them all one day,
And become a big rock star!
